Critical Intelligence Problems Committee

Chemical And Biological Warfare Intelligence Subcommittee

MISSION AND FUNCTIONS

The Chemical and Biological Warfare (CBW) Intelligence Subcommittee is organized as a working level interagency subcommittee under the auspices of the Critical Intelligence Problems Committee (CIPC), with representatives from all NFIB agencies.

MISSION:

The mission of the CIPC CBW Intelligence Subcommittee is to assist the CIPC in its support to the DCI on CBW intelligence matters. The primary emphasis of the Subcommittee's efforts will be to assess, assist, and coordinate the Intelligence Community's efforts with regard to foreign CBW developments, and to assist and coordinate the Intelligence Community's efforts in the implementation of the recommendations of the CBW report.

FUNCTIONS:

The Subcommittee will function for a period of 6-12 months. Under the general guidance of the Chairman of the Critical Intelligence Problems Committee, the Subcommittee will review and make recommendations to the CIPC concerning the following areas of special concern:

- the specific requirements and shortfalls associated with CBW intelligence;
- current and programmed resources directed against CBW intelligence;
- options for adjustments which could be accomplished within existing and/or programmed resources;
- recommendations for new initiatives which could increase Community efforts and resources against CBW intelligence;
- the composition and functions of the interagency CBW committees.
